Word-to-Word Translation (German)

"Grau, teurer Freund, ist alle Theorie, und grün des Lebens goldner Baum. "

Word-to-Word Translation (German)

English (word-for-word translation): "Grey, dear friend, is all theory, and green the life's golden tree."

The sentence "Grau, teurer Freund, ist alle Theorie, und grün des Lebens goldner Baum" is from Johann Wolfgang von Goethe's famous work "Faust." Specifically, it is from the scene commonly referred to as "Vor dem Tor" ("Before the Gate") in the first part of "Faust." In this scene, Faust and Wagner engage in a philosophical discussion about the nature of life and knowledge. Faust expresses his disillusionment with purely theoretical knowledge, likening it to the color grey, while praising the vitality and richness of life itself, symbolized by the golden tree.
